

Custom Tactile Artwork

Tactile art, a type of sensory art, is made up of mixed media with varying textures and surfaces, and as its name suggests, is meant to be appreciated through touch. Tactile stimulation can have numerous benefits for memory care residents, including promoting mental wellness and improving their quality of life.

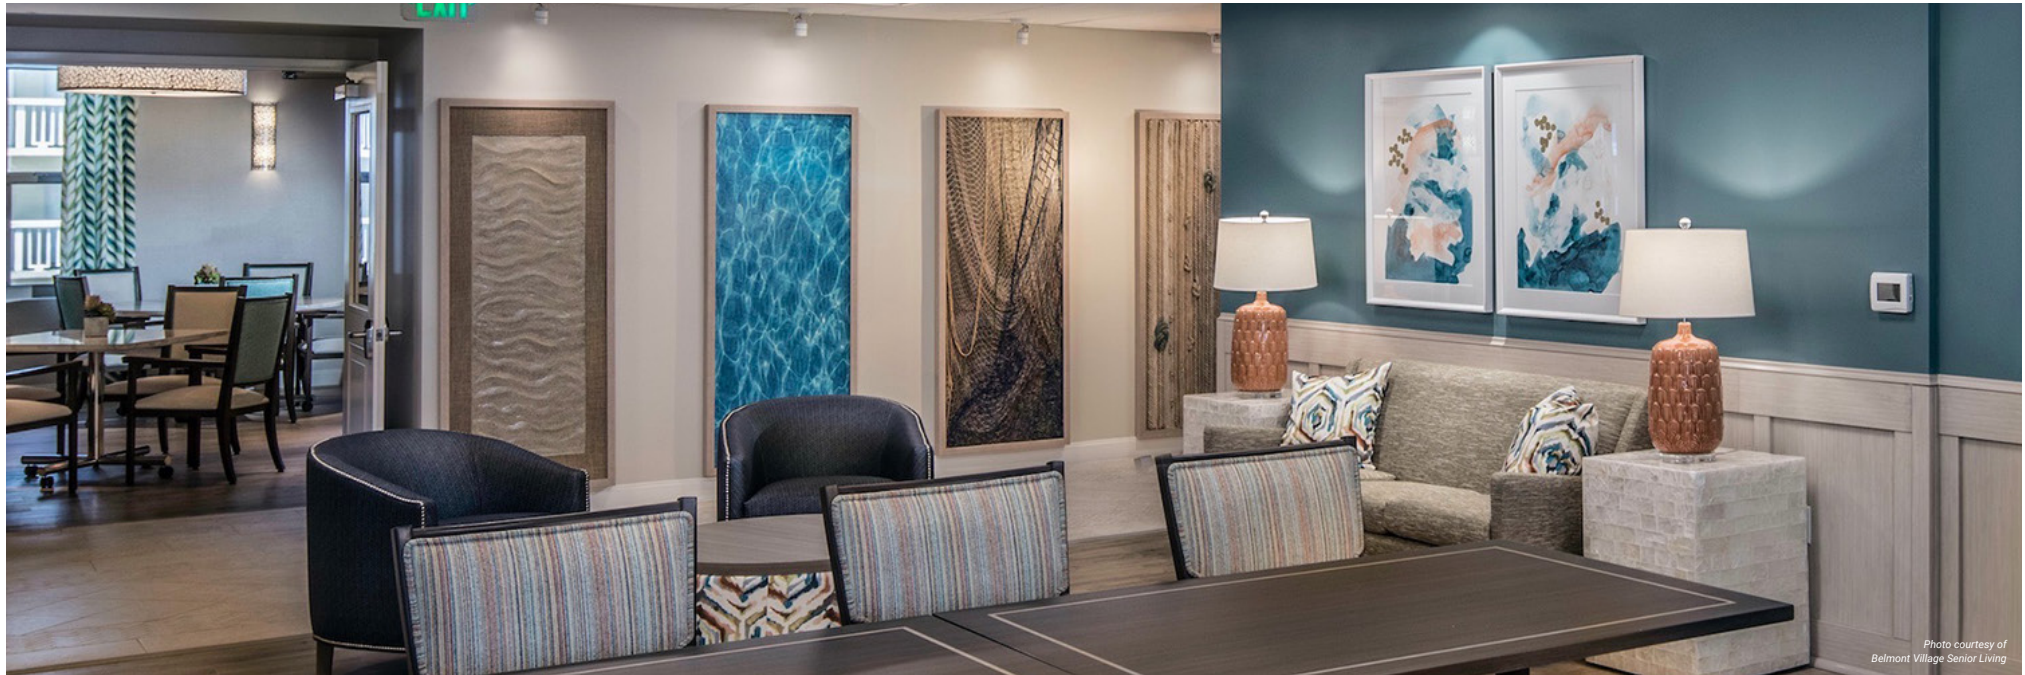

Photo courtesy of
Belmont Village Senior Living

Tactile Art Services

- › Artwork concepts designed around client vision
- › Created with materials that can be easily cleaned
- › Collaboration with interior designers and contractors
- › Nationwide delivery and installation

Levi Buck

Direct: (314) 656-3142

Mobile: (573) 590-1910

Levi@arch-design.com